New York native C-WILL121 perfectly delivers an instant classic with his seventh "new vibe music" album Music Hero. These remarkable passages prove yet again that he is undoubtedly a master at his own game.

It's challenging to place the genre in a box with a simple label, as C-WILL121 blends future soul and r&b into his own flavor of "new vibe music" as he addresses his distinct sound. The charming instrumentation of tracks like "See That" and "Here, I Am King" are reminiscent of Prince's signature funk grooves. Where as smoother songs "Stuck" and "Dreaming Is True" are similar to that of Maxwell and D'Angelo. The overall meshing of these vibes are truly nostalgic in the best way possible.

This forthcoming album is a remarkably perfect fit for many occasions whether it be a late night drive or a party on the beach. C-WILL121 has certainly crafted a timeless piece of art here with Music Hero.
